

Justin R. Bangert

Education: B.A. Psychology; M.S., Marriage and Family Therapy

Certifications & Affiliations:

- Certified Sexual Addiction Specialist
- Certified in Internet and Video Game Addictions
- American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT)
- American Association of Christian Counselors (AACC)

Passion & Vision: “I am devoted to helping people in pain bring harmony and satisfaction into their inter and intrapersonal lives, by helping them create a solid foundation for their significant relationships as well as their walk with the Lord that is based on friendship and trust, which will allow them to overcome their differences and essentially create a shared meaning throughout their journey of life together.”

Clinical Experience: Over eight years experience working with families, couples, individuals, children and adolescents in multiple settings including day-treatment centers, in-home facilities and outpatient service agencies.

Professional experience in treating:

- sexual addiction and pornography issues
- internet and video game addiction issues
- trust/forgiveness issues
- separation/divorce
- anxiety
- depression
- grief/loss
- anger management
- stress management
- communication issues
- conflict management
- infidelity issues
- child and adolescent behavioral issues

Current Areas of Focus:

- Marriage Satisfaction, Enhancement, and Protection
- Pornography, Infidelity and Unhealthy Sexuality Issues
- Internet and Video Game Abuse and Addiction Issues
- Proactive Parenting and Family Structure
- Premarital and Parenthood Preparation
- Spiritual Growth and Development
- Family and Couple Communication Issues
- Adolescent and College Transition Issues

Other Services Offered:

- Certified Prepare-Enrich Premarital Program
- Life Skills Series: Therapeutic Workshops and Seminars
- Parenting the Love & Logic Way Seminar Facilitator